Afro-Soul Sensation Falana Set to Captivate Ghana at +233 Jazz Bar Accra, Ghana. Internationally acclaimed Afro-soul artist Falana is thrilled to announce her highly anticipated performance at the iconic +233 Jazz Bar & Grill in Accra, Ghana, on July 24, 2019. This event marks a pivotal moment in her Chapter One Africa Tour, which has already seen her mesmerize audiences in London, Toronto, Lagos, Abuja, and Paris.

Falana, whose music has graced the pages of Vogue, Elle, Clash, Hunger, and Okay Africa, continues to redefine the Afro-soul genre with her soulful voice, captivating lyrics, and dynamic stage presence. Her second album, "Chapter One", has received critical acclaim and solidified her position as one of Africa's most unique and exciting musical exports.

Event Highlights:

- Special Guest Performance: Falana will be joined by Ghanaian music icon Erykah Badu, whose powerful vocals and stagecraft have earned her a dedicated fanbase across the continent.
- Opening Act: Legendary musician Kwame Yeboah, renowned for his work with Osibisa, Craig David, Cat Stevens, and Kojo Antwi, will set the stage on fire with his unparalleled talent.
- Venue: The +233 Jazz Bar & Grill, a premier destination for live music in Accra, will provide the perfect backdrop for this unforgettable night of music and culture.

Quote from Falana: "I'm incredibly excited to bring my music to Ghana, a country with such a rich musical heritage. This tour is about connecting with my roots and sharing my story through music. I can't wait to perform at +233 Jazz Bar and experience the energy of the Ghanaian audience."

Quote from Kwame Yeboah: "It's an honor to open for Falana, an artist who is pushing the boundaries of Afro-soul. This event is a celebration of African music, and I'm thrilled to be a part of it."
